

ECPR Winter School &
ECPR Standing Group on Political Methodology (SGPM)

‘Convince us’ sessions

Thursday, 9 March 2017, 12.45 – 13.45

Presentations of work in progress by junior scholars, in a friendly and supportive atmosphere. Everyone is welcome to attend, no registration required. The two workshops run in parallel

Bring your lunch!

Workshop 1 – Room F21/01.37

Chair: Kathrin Thomas, City University London

Discussant: Markus Wagner, University of Vienna

Presenters:

Benjamin Rosche, Utrecht University, Netherlands

Putting Parties Back Into the (Analysis of the) Survival of Coalition Governments

Magdelina Kitanova, University of Southampton, Southampton, UK

Youth Political Participation in Europe: a Cross National Analysis

Franziska Koessler, WZB Social Science Center Berlin & Humboldt University of Berlin, Germany

A Multilevel Structural Equation Model on the Effects of Ethnic Diversity in Work Teams on Job Satisfaction and Occupational Mental Health

Workshop 2 - Room F21/01.35

Chair: Lea Sgier, Central European University (CEU), Budapest

Discussants:

Virginie Van Ingelgom, Université catholique de Louvain

Ingo Rohlfing, University of Cologne

Presenters:

Tanja Haraldsdottir Nordberg, Oslo and Akershus University College of Applied Sciences, Norway

Managers' Talk About Family Policies – How Do Managers in the Legal Profession and the Police View Employee's Use of Family Policies?

Markéta Novotná, University of Economics, Prague, Czech Republic

Solidarity - a Necessary Precondition for the Resilience of Schengen?

Sanja Hajdinjak, Central European University (CEU), Budapest, Hungary

Bureaucratic and Political Veto Points in Rent Grabbing and Resource Use in the Tourism Sector